

Resident Scholarly Project Program (RSPP)

ROADMAP

Mentors _____

RSPP Co-Directors _____

✉ RSPP@email.arizona.edu

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE TUCSON
Family & Community
Medicine

RSPP DELIVERABLES DETAILS

Module	Deliverable	Due Date	What	Work with
1: Introduction to RSPP	A		Submit CITI Training Certificates for both Basic and Native American courses.
	B		Submit a memo update (<1 page) that addresses the following: (1) What did you find in your systematic review of the literature? (2) What are the current trends and technological advances (e.g. clinical guidelines, opinion pieces, professional organization statements)? (3) Who are your stakeholders and what saying?	Potential Stakeholders
2: The Basic Principals of Scholarly Work	C		Submit the completed Mentor Plan. Complete this document while meeting with your mentors during the required mentor/mentee meeting.	Mentors
	D		Send both of your mentors a draft of your project proposal and regulatory paperwork (if required) with a request for input, and cc RSPP@email.arizona.edu on that email. (Hint: Send this at least one week prior to your meeting for Deliverable E so that your mentors have adequate time to review.)	Mentors
	E		Attend at least one required mentor-mentee meeting to discuss your mentors' and the RSPP co-directors' feedback on your proposal and regulatory paperwork (if required) and make revisions.	Mentors
3: Finalizing a Project	F		Submit your revised research proposal and regulatory documents per input received from both your mentors and RSPP co-directors.	RSPP Team
	G		Attend at least one required mentor-mentee meeting , get feedback on your "work in progress" presentation.	Mentors
	H		Present your work-in-progress presentation at a May faculty meeting.	RSPP Team
4: Presenting Your Work	I		Attend at least one required mentor/mentee meeting to prepare a final presentation to present at Scholarly Day in May.	Mentors
Capstone
Present a poster of your final results at the faculty meeting in May of your graduation year!

Watch your email for instructions on how to submit your deliverables.

Questions? Email us at RSPP@email.arizona.edu