

Southeast Arizona Health Education Center presents a Tele-Education Lecture:

Channeling Your Patient's Inner Superhero: How integrating Primary Care and Behavioral Health will change your practice

- Reverse Integration: Overcoming Barriers for Collaborative Care in a Behavioral Health Setting
- A break from mind-body dualism: Treating the whole person in integrated primary care
- Best Practice in Primary Care/Behavioral Health Integration for Patients who have Disabilities

Featuring:

Dr. Amy Gomez, DBH, MS, LAC

Dr. Janelle Thompson, MA, PsyD.

Tamara H. Norris, MSSW, MPA, Clinical Associate Professor

Director, Family Support Program

Moderator: Christina Mathis President of National AHEC Organization

Friday June 26, 2020

1200 – 1330

Presented by Zoom Platform, Registration is required to receive a password to join.

Following the training the Participate will:

Identify ways to reduce stigma while treating patients in an integrated manner (physical and behavioral health)

Discuss ways to keep patient engaged during integrated health treatment and List positive and negative aspects of integration of primary and behavioral care

Continuing education credit in nursing is being provided through the Southeast Arizona Area Health Education Center (SEAHEC).

Provider Number CEP 11397 for 1 contact hours

Application for CME credit through AAFP is pending approval

Email beth@seahec.org for registration information