

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE TUCSON

Family Medicine Residency

South Campus

We welcome aspiring family physicians into a residency marked by excellence at all levels – achieving new heights of teaching, scholarly work, mentorship, and interprofessionalism as we care for vulnerable populations in under-resourced areas of Arizona.

GENERAL RESIDENCY INFORMATION

- 8 residents/year. ACGME accredited
- Based at Banner – University Medical Center South in Tucson, AZ
- University based program
- 150 bed community based hospital
- Family Medicine run inpatient service
- Diverse demographic:
 - Mexican citizens and Native Americans
 - Refugees from around the world

RURAL ROTATIONS

- USA/Mexico border health
- Indian health services
- Global health opportunities
- Alaskan/Canadian health opportunities
- Rural Arizona:
 - Nogales, Safford, Polacca, Fort Defiance, Whiteriver, Wilcox, Casa Grande
- Family Medicine - 2 rotations
- Obstetrics - 1 rotation
- Emergency Medicine - 1 rotation

Our program provides an opportunity for physicians to master the broad skill set needed for practice in multiple settings, especially underserved and rural areas.

DISTINCTION TRACKS

- Global health track
 - University based global health curriculum
 - Journal clubs and conferences
 - 8-week international elective
- Integrative medicine – online curriculum
- Spanish fluency & healthcare disparity track:
 - 2-year multidisciplinary track
 - Minimum Spanish proficiency required
- OB track
 - Minimum of 4 high volume OB months
 - Robust OB curriculum with both clinical and didactic experiences

COMMUNITY MEDICINE

- Mobile health for the underserved:
 - Offers care where little or none is available
 - Serves approximately 2,400 pt/year
 - Prenatal and obstetrics for uninsured women
- High school football team physician opportunities
- Walk with a Doc
- Health fairs
- Annual free sports physicals for school district